

Sucka for You

Jay Sean

Listen here baby
Listen to Jay You could shoot me
You could cut me
You could take my breath away
Push me in front of a train]
Wouldn't matter either way I could take a million pills until my heart no longer beats
Used to have that part of me
Now you should see how much it bleeds Now it's all for the love
Holding on to us
I know I should of known better
Cause you were all for the pain
No matter what to blame better
I know I should of known better I'm a sucker for that devil in you
Oh
I'm a sucker for that devil in you
Oh You can take all of my cash and light a fire in the streets
Slip some poison in my drink and watch me crumble to my knees
And I just keep on crawling back
Uou're like a sickness in my head
If I keep on loving you this way, I'll probably end up dead Cause you hurt me like
Oh
Hurt me like
Oh
I never thought that it would be you
That would cut me like
Oh
Cut me like
Oh
I'd rather die than have to know the truth Now it's all for the love
Holding on to us
I know I should of known better
Cause you were all for the pain
No matter what to blame better
I know I should of known better I'm a sucker for that devil in you
Oh
I'm a sucker for that devil in you
Oh You know I'm a sucker for Sucker for you, yeah
Don't know why I turned you down

And if you carry on this way
You know that you gon' hear them say
She put that mothersucker in the ground Now it's all for the love
Holding on to us
I know I should of known better
Cause you were all for the pain
No matter what to blame
I know I should of known better I'm a sucker for that devil in you
Oh (Oh, babe)
I'm a sucker for that devil in you
Oh
I'm a sucker for that devil in you.
