

It Could Just Be Love Interlude

Teyana Taylor

Give me your love love, give me

You knock me down, my pride hits the ground
Don't know if this is going away
My heartbeat jumps to the tip of my tongue
I think you're wanting to say, come over here

Give me your love love, give me
Give me your love love, give me

Boy you don't know what you're doing to me
Just give me your love love, give me
Right here, don't care

It could just be love, or something like it
Boy I don't know, but I need you right now
It could just be love, or something like it
I think I like it, and I'll know soon enough
