

Should Have Known

Reva DeVito

I should have seen it coming, I should have fucking known
How could I let you play me, I don't even know?
I should have seen it coming, I should have fucking known
How could I let you play me, I don't even know?
I'm such a fool, I can't believe I let you in my life
You broke the rules but I should have known
You do it all the time
Thought we were cool but then again who am I kidding?
It's every players favorite crime, yeah
To make you feel like it's all real
When it's a lie and I should have known
I should have seen it coming, I should have fucking known
How could I let you play me, I don't even know?
I should have seen it coming, I should have fucking known
How could I let you play me, I don't even know?
I should have known, my family, they never did pretend
My mama felt, she never liked, you neither did my friends
And when you blamed it all on me I should have known
That's what liars always try to do, yeah
It wasn't me, it was you
You're the fool and I should have known
I should have seen it coming, I should have fucking known
How could I let you play me, I don't even know?
I should have seen it coming, I should have fucking known
How could I let you play me, I don't even know?
If your heart was simple just like mine is Then you would know just how it feels
When someone takes advantage of your kindness
You think you're never gonna heal
If your soul was deep just like mine is
Then you would know not to give up
Keep my faith even through the darkness
Yeah, I still believe in love, I still believe
