

Another Beer

Ugly Kid Joe

Pain, don't you come pouring down on me
Cause I do not deserve to be
Drowned in miserySane, is what I will never be
And there's no use helping me
Cause I know just what I needAnother beer is all I need
And who are you to disagree?
Yeah just one more, and I'll be free
Another beer is all I need
Please, Don't you take my glass away
Cause I would really love to stay
Until the light of dayHere is what I've been longing for
So before you close the door
Could you pour me just one more?Another beer is all I need
And who are you to disagree?
Yeah just one more, and You'll be rid of me
Another beer is all I need
Another beer is all we need
And no one here will disagree
Yeah just one more, and we'll all be free
Another beer is all we need
