

Imagine That

Don Williams

No more nights sleeping alone in an empty bed, in an empty home Someone to talk to someone to hold in my armsImagine that, how sweet it'd be
To have you here again with me
Oh lord, I wish I had you back
But all I can do is imagine thatno more silence in the hall no more staring at the walls someone to laugh with, someone to share in my dreamsImagine that, how sweet it'd be
To have you here again with me
Oh lord, I wish I had you back
But all I can do is imagine thatImagine that, how sweet it'd be
To have you here again with me
Oh lord, I wish I had you back
But all I can do is imagine thatImagine that, how sweet it'd be
To have you here again with me
Oh lord, I wish I had you back
But all I can do is imagine thatImagine that, how sweet it'd be
To have you here again with me
Oh lord, I wish I had you back
But all I can do is imagine that
