Safe With Me

Billie Piper

Know that you're sad, hurt in the past
Got you believing love won't last
It's not hard to tell, you've lost all your faith
Don't blame us all for a fool's mistakeThings they advise, I should let go
They're calling you ice, then I see you glow
You're making me crazy, what can I say
I'd do anything to take the pain awayWhen you gonna realize that you're lonely
I can see it in your eyes, you don't have to be
When you gonna realize I'm the remedy
Won't you give my love a tryYou'll be safe with me
(Da, da, da, oh)
You'll be safe with me
(Da, da, da, oh)Something so strong could take on the world
I'm not just talking 'bout being your girl
The things I want us to do
Get into me like I'm into youWalking in the park, watching leaves fall
Lovers in the dark, counting every star
Finally when your trust is in me
I'll give you my love, real, slow and tenderWhen you gonna realize that you're lonely
I can see it in your eyes, you don't have to be
When you gonna realize, I'm the remedy
Won't you give my love a try?
You'll be safe with meWhen you gonna realize that you're lonely
I can see it in your eyes, you don't have to be
When you gonna realize I'm the remedy
Won't you give my love a try?
You'll be safe with meYou're here in my arms and that's how I want it, boy
When the morning comes you'll know what I feel, so real
Dream of your smile, night after night
The one that you hide from the daylightStop all those tears, doubt in your mind
Leave all your fears way behindWhen you gonna realize that you're lonely
I can see it in your eyes, you don't have to be
When you gonna realize I'm the remedy
Won't you give my love a try?
You'll be safe with meWhen you gonna realize that you're lonely
(I know you know that)
I can see it in your eyes, you don't have to be
(You gonna be)When you gonna realize I'm the remedy
(Safe with me, yeah)

Won't you give my love a try?
You'll be safe with me
(You'll be safe with me)When you gonna realize that you're lonely
I can see it in your eyes, you don't have to be
When you gonna realize I'm the remedy
(No, no, no, no)
Won't you give my love a try?
You'll be safe with meWhen you gonna realize that you're lonely
I can see it in your eyes, you don't have to be
