

World In A World

Eiffel 65

When the world will fall apart, There's a place where you can run And it feels like there's no air, When your faith seems locked away, And the grey is all you see, And that nobody can invade. To see your problems left behind. There's a place waiting for you Your world in the world. Your world in the world. Where there's nothing wrong. Where you feel at home. Your know this world Will never, Never let you, Never let you down.

Where it never rains. Your world in the world. Where you put your friends. Your world in the world. Will never, Never let you, Your know this world Your world in the world. Never let you down. When the world is just a haze And you can't work out this maze. There's a place where you can go When the going starts to hurt To feel that everything's alright. And you feel you're on the floor. There's a place waiting for you And that nobody can invade. Where it never rains. Your world in the world. Your world in the world. Where you put your friends. Will never, Your know this world Never let you, Never let you down. Your world in the world.
