

Skull of Your Country (feat. Cian Coey)

Meat Loaf

How do you bury the skull of a country?
How do you bury a nation of fears?
Where ya gonna hide your love through the long years of dying?
Give me a tombstone and a wreath of all your tears Turnaround
There's a black day dawning
Turnaround
There's a corpse in mourning
Turnaround
For your tin can graveyard
Turnaround
For your tin foil saviour
Turnaround bright eyes Turnaround
There are drones on fire screaming
Turnaround
There are bloodshot rivers steaming
Turnaround
Let the final dance begin now
Turnaround
We're outlaw sons now Turnaround bright eyes
Turnaround
For the blood on the highways
Turnaround
For the new war each day
Turnaround
For the skies are hungry
Turnaround
For the earth is thirsty Turnaround bright eyes
