

Because I Love You

Christy Sechrist

Iâ€™m always doing something wrong never been good enough and this pain I live with always seems to be too much You never miss a single mistake the worst, you have a list of those and I never hear the end itâ€™s this about you I hate the most and because I love you, you break my heart every day because I love you, I never want to walk away but this heartâ€™s in pieces I will never find nothing I do ever pleases though weâ€™re perfect, in my mind because I love, I break down every night because I love you, I always think youâ€™re right

You tear me into little pieces and tell me everything Iâ€™ve screwed up I never know your reasons and itâ€™s just too hard to be enough for you you say I try too hard but I try â€™cause Iâ€™m never right no matter how hard I try I always lose the fight

(Chorus)

You laugh when I cry see through when I lie I always wonder why I even try
