

I Left... Because I Love You

Sammie

I know you gon' hate me after I say this Cause you went way too deep in this too late shit
But baby I ain't ready for relation
I'm afraid of commitment girl I'm chasing
But that don't change what we buildin what we had no
But you ain't tryna hear that Girl, i left because i love you
I ain't good at love
I ain't good at love no
So I left because i love you
One girl aint much
That'll never be enough no
And I left because I love you
I ain't good at love
I ain't good at love no
Girl, I left because I love you
One girl ain't much
That'll never be enough no
Girl, I left because I loved you
Girl, I left because I love you (yeahh)
You ain't gon' like me if I stay around
Your paps and your brother gon' wanna fight me if I stay around
You gon' be dissapointed when I let you down
And I love you way too much to watch you settle now
You love my potential, girl I can't live up to that
You love my potential, girl I can't amount to that Girl, I left because I love you
I ain't good at love
I ain't good at love no
So I left because i love you
One girl aint much
That'll never be enough no
And I left because I love you
I ain't good at love, I ain't good at love no
Girl, I left because I love you
One girl ain't much
That'll never be enough no
Girl, I left because I loved you
Girl, I left because I love you
I know you can't see it baby
When you look at me but

Looks they do deceive so I need you to believe that I ain't him
No, I ain't your king, no, I ain't your diamond in the rough
I ain't your gem, no, I ain't your gem
I left because I love you
