

Shadow Pool

Dust For Life

The night is always young
Count the visions that you see
Violent blue and shocking green
Seek the course that must be run
Strip the image from the sun

It's deeper than you've ever been
Watching, waiting for the night to fall

(For the night to fall)

Wanting, wailing for the shadow call
(For the shadow call)

Dreaming, screaming, hiding all that's true
(Hiding all that's true)

You are looking for the shadow pool
The days are always long

And the pitch is just a dream
Your eyes just seem to bleed
When the truth is hard to find
Jealousy fills your mind

It's deeper than you've ever been
Watching, waiting for the night to fall

(For the night to fall)

Wanting, wailing for the shadow call
(For the shadow call)

Dreaming, screaming, hiding all that's true
(Hiding all that's true)
