

No One Else

Allison Iraheta

I got myself to blame for this
Got myself to blame for my difficult days
And my typical ways but you
You know how to let things slide
I'm all perfect in your eyes
You don't see all the damage in me
And
There's simply no one else
In the world that I could ever find
Likes me when I'm low
And still tolerates me when I'm high
You, you count me down
You kept comin' 'round
There's simply no one else
I could lean on a thousand times,
Still be there again, and again
Never lose his mind,
You know me so well,
You can't even tell,
That you're like no one else
That you're like no one else
No, nothing's ever what it seems
But you always seem to be
Who you are, even when it gets hard
And
You, let me kick ya to the floor
And you still come back for more.
You're too good
What did I do to deserve you
There's simply no one else
In the world that I could ever find
Likes me when I'm low
And still tolerates me when I'm high

You, you count me down
You kept comin' 'round
There's simply no one else
I could lean on a thousand times,
Still be there again, and again

Never lose his mind,
You know me so well,
You can't even tell,
That you're like no one else...
That you're like no one else...
I told you that I'd never love you
You said that it would be okay
You had enough love for us anyway
I told you I'd never need you
But oh you proved me wrong again
I pray to god that never ends...
There's simply no one else
In the world that I could ever find
Likes me when I'm low
And still tolerates me when I'm high
You, you count me down
You kept comin' 'round
There's simply no one else
I could lean on a thousand times
Still be there again, and again, and again.
And never lose his mind
You know me so well
You can't even tell
That you're like no one else...
That you're like no one else...
You know me so well
You can't even tell
That you're like no one else
That you're like no one else
