Breathe

Rose Falcon

It's a sunny happy day
And the sky is crystal clear, oh yeah
Surprise, surprise I'm okay
The best I've been in years, oh yeah
Summer's hanging in the trees
Bluebirds butterflies and bees
The world's alright
And that's alright with me
'Cause I hardly think about it anymore
Oh, it's just a distant memory
And I hardly think about it anymore
What happened to the dream?
And it only hurts when I breathe
Got more money in the bank
Than I ever had before, oh yeah
Things keep going my way
Pretty soon I'll have a whole lot more, oh yeah
But I'm sleeping in a lonely bed
When I remember to forget
The world's alright
And that's alright with me
'Cause I hardly think about it anymore
Oh, it's just a distant memory
And I hardly think about it anymore
What happened to the dream?
And it only hurts, yes, it only hurts
Now it only hurts when I breathe
Sun up, sun down
Breathe in, breathe out
Breathe in, breathe out
Breathe in, breathe out
And I hardly think about it anymore
Oh, it's just a distant memory
And I hardly think about it anymore
What happened to the dream?
And it only hurts yes it only hurts
Now it only hurts when I breathe
Oh, it only hurts yes it only hurts
Now it only hurts when I breathe

When I breathe when I breathe
When I breathe when I breathe
When I breathe
