Back Door Man

UFO

I'm every man here in disguise
Lie, cheat and give you a spoonful of lies
I'm a high toned mother with an axe to grind
Come a little closer honey, see what you findYour worst nightmares all rolled in one
I'll find you, sure as the rising sun
Don't make a noise it's understood
'Cos this ain't no story like red riding hoodI'm your back door man, I'm your back door man, ohh, yeah
I'm your back door man, come on babe, and I'll take you where I canSystematically I choose at will
But with you there's an obscene thrill
It's funny now how you can't say no
It's the smell of fear that you love soI'm your back door man, I'm your back door man, oh yeah
I'm your back door man baby, just take it where you canThis first kiss has a touch of ice
Now, how's that feel? It ain't so nice
Blackhearted mamma, I've something new
Ohh, Lord look what I've turned intoI'm your back door man, I'm your back door man
I'm your back door man, I'm your back door man
