Hell Is For Heroes

Get set for the rush, we're on the ascent
Thrust ignite acceleration
Pressure drop, it's only natural
It draws the breath from your lung
It draws the breath from your lung
Get set for the rush, we're on the ascent
Thrust ignite acceleration
Pressure drop, it's only natural
It draws the breath from your lung
It draws the breath from
In the air, in the air now
In the air, in the air now
In the air, in the air now
We can make this right
We can work it out
We can make this right
We can conquer our fear of flying
Breathing normal, shaking stable
Back on auto, under control
So leave me to my own devices
I'm losing time but making up ground
Get set for the rush, we're on the ascent
Thrust ignite acceleration
Pressure drop, it's only natural
It draws the breath from your lung
It draws the breath from your
Get set for the rush, we're on the ascent
Thrust ignite acceleration
Pressure drop, it's only natural
It draws the breath from your lung
It draws the breath from
In the air, in the air now
In the air, in the air now
In the air, in the air now
We can make this right
We can work it out
We can make this right
We can conquer our fear of flying
It draws the breath out of me

In the air, in the air now
In the air, in the air now
In the air, in the air now
We can make this right
We can work it out
We can make this right
We can conquer our fear of
