

The Handwriting Is On the Wall

Ann Peebles

Lately I'm beginning to see signs
That you've got leaving me, on your mind I get a cold cold feelin, when I touch you
It's hard to face, but I know the truth [Chorus]
You see the handwriting is on the wall
I just looked up and read it all
You're getting ready to call it off
The handwriting is on the wall
The handwriting is sure on the wall Lately when I want to make love to you
You say you're too tired or some other excuse
I might as well quit foolin' myself
There just ain't much love between us left [Chorus] [Chorus: Repeat x3]
