

Love Always Comes As a Surprise

Peter Asher

Love, always comes as a surprise
You donâ€™t need to close your eyes â€™Cause soon youâ€™ll recognize
Its colors

Life, well it always has a twist
Something new that canâ€™t be missed
And you know I canâ€™t resist
This feeling

I used to feel so apropos
I thought all hope had flown
Just a dreamer on my own
And I know

Lifeâ€™s complicated
But we have to try
To find our own future
With you at my side

We can all work together
To build something new
I know you can see it
Letâ€™s make it come true

[music break]

Time, well it passes by so fast
We must make each moment last
And treasure each and Every feeling

Friends, are what make it all worthwhile
Just try and show a little style
And life can put a smile
On your face

Donâ€™t, ever give up on your dreams
As hard as things may seem
We can win through in the end

Believe me

Fears and illusion
To die may be caused
But things can still change
The future at last

Can be held in our hands
And out of the blue
With friends on our side
To have the endings come true
