

Finish Line (Reprise)

Seven Nations

Finish Line: Reprise
(Kirk McLeod) Another time
Another place to be
Another people waiting
On that finish line
Another time
Another place to be
Another people waiting
On that finish line But you see that we have picked up the pieces
And you, you know that we are living well and feeling fine
But although we may have forgotten for awhile
You can look across the ocean now and see that we remember
Living in America
