

Bring Back the Night

Sean Rowe

Although i'm free to roam
My body has tricked me again
Your love was the weight that i've cut
But my ankle was tied to your bedThe jungle has built its own plans
And so i was born obsolete
Though i'm not an innocent man
I never knew much of the street
Oh bring back the night
Bring back the night, and all of its teeth
And it's punishing jaws, my shield is completeBring back the night, let it bleed one more time
Let the moon be my drum, let the hunted be right
Bring back the nightI think we were painted too close
I could not see love from the frame
Now the world is speaking in tongues
But nobody is calling my nameYour father was right after all
And your mother was the lead in my touch
But i know i was the break in the fall
Still i cannot remember that much
Just bring back the night
Bring back the night, and all of its teeth
And it's punishing jaws, my shield is completeBring back the night, let it bleed one more time
Let the moon be my drum, let the hunted be rightOh bring back the night
