

Wow

Marilyn Manson

I had a dream, this one I feel the need to mention
I was happy for awhile and I stopped being scared
And ashamed to say what's on my mind
But you thought I'd change after awhile
And said, "You'd better treat me different or else"
Or else seems like a stupid fucking thing to say
To someone like me, someone like me
Wow, wow, wow
Wow, wow, wow, wow
Wow, wow, wow, wow
Don't be surprised, I can look you in the eye
It's hard to take you serious when you take me inside
Don't be surprised, I can look you in the eye
It's hard to take you serious when you take me inside
I'm worse than what you think you'd catch from me
Complicated's understated
Did you stop and take a look at who you fell in love with?
At who you fell in love with
It doesn't matter, how many times I say it
It never gets old that's why I have to say
Wow, wow, wow
Wow, wow, wow, wow
Wow, wow, wow, wow
Don't be surprised, I can look you in the eye
It's hard to take you serious when you take me inside
Don't be surprised, I can look you in the eye
It's hard to take you serious when you take me inside
It doesn't matter if you're going to come or just going
I never wanted you to come here anyway
There's a word that's like you because it can be a noun
A verb, an exclamation or the thing I say
When something is unbelievable
When I'm not able to believe how unbelievably unbelievable
That you believe you could not be leaveable
That's when I have to say
Wow, wow, wow
Wow, wow, wow, wow
Wow, wow, wow, wow
Don't be surprised, I can look you in the eye

It's hard to take you serious when you take me inside
Don't be surprised, I can look you in the eye
It's hard to take you serious when you take me inside
It doesn't matter how many times I say it
It never gets old that's why I have to say
Wow
