BYSKB v2m2

Jack Garratt

Boy, you should've known better.
I did nothing wrong.
It's a way to behave and a way to use the feelings I forgot.
I forgot.
But, boy you should know better,
To search for what you lost.
In the canyon between the man you were and the girl I was.

Have you ever loved someone more than you've been loved?
Your pain is a lion.
If you ever hurt in the deepest years, you'll learn.
Kill them with fire.

Boy you should know better than to run against the weather with no-one.
To share whatever you've become.
Boy you should know better.

You're body is no better.
more palpable or kind.
So then why do you flicker like a candle at the touch of mine?

Have you ever loved someone more than you've been loved?
Your tongue is a liar.
If you ever hurt in the deepest years, you'll learn.
Kill them it fire.

Boy you should know better than to run against the weather with no-one.
To share whatever you've become.
Boy you should know better.
