

Magic Mind

Earth, Wind & Fire

Hey, we heard the news
That someone's cryin' the blues
'Cause words still go unsaid
As hungry minds are never fed Take a chance as you dance
In romance in a trance
To advance and expand
Got a dime and a rhyme
Brilliant mind still incline
In your prime to design For a man's great strength to meet
Another trembling heart defeat
Is read between the lines
When change of mind
Is hard to find The blossoms that you reap
From binding challenges complete
And wisdom's gentle rain
Immensely crown the brain Take a chance as you dance
In romance in a trance
To advance and expand
Got a dime and a rhyme
Brilliant mind still incline
In your prime to design Moving soon, upper room
Paid your dues
'Cause you're through feelin' blue
