Do I love you?
Because you treat me so indifferently
Or is it the medication?
Or is it me?Do I love you?
Because you don't want me to rub your back
Or is it the medication?
Or is it you? Or is it true?And I better be prominently

Because I paid a lotta money
To get you over here, you knowAnd if I am not prominently

I don't know what I'm gonnaDo I love you?
Or is this feeling just a little pain?
A treasure chest is broken, easily openAnd usually I am such a happy prince
Behind the iron curtain, yeah
The city walls, a solid prisonAnd I better be prominently

'Cause I paid a lotta money
To get you over here, you knowAnd if I am not prominently

I don't know what I'm gonna doDo I love you?
Do I love you? Yes, I do
Do I love you? Yes, I do
Do I love you? Yes, I do
Do I love you? Yes, I do
