

The Message (Solid State's Back da Funk remix)

Nate James

There is something wrong with sounds today they never really captured how i feel and whatever happened to the sounds today i think they are lacking something reallylike them old school jams that kinda make you wanna dance lose yourself in music feels so free each time i take your stand and turn things round i want you to express yourself through music and go party and just sing yer lets get it together cos music and and that freedom or thinkin is pushing us furthergot to get up and dance got to get and move got to send out my message to the peoplegot to get up and dance got to get in the groove are you hearing my message to the peopleso whats going on in life today people looking down and thinking whats up but we can think around and find a way just keep on moving forward and dont give up lets go back in time to the music on my mind with stevie playing piano just for youso what happened to the sounds today i know that deep down you love your music and go party and just sing it lets get it together and music and that freedom
thinkin is pushing us furthergot to get up and dance got to get and move got to send out my message to the peoplegot to get up and dance got to get in the groove are you hearing my message to the peopletill endThanks
