Titus Was Born

Young the Giant

Verse 1
Titus was born
Under the eye of a storm
Rain water carried his bed
Around the world and back again
Oh all things he did see
Life is a dream
Drifting at sea
So hard to believeAnd so Titus would grow
Tall and strong as on oak
Rain water stuck in his head
That filled him with words unsaid
Of all things he might be
Drifted at sea
At night he would dream
It all stops at bay
To wash the pain away
Rain's falling
Falling on youAnd the storm, it was driving
Washing away
All the trees on the island (Rain water, rain water)
In the alley there was a silence but it washed it away
Crushing rocks by the sirensIt's falling on youuuu
rain water rain water
Its falling on you
The storm was driving
Washing away
All the trees on the island (Rain water, rain water)In the alley there was silence but it washed it away
Crashing rocks by the sirensIt's falling on youuuu
Rain water rain water
The rain water is falling on you
Falling on you
