

Gone So Long

Jabudah

My eyes open to the sound of a song I've heard
Don't know the name, but I know all the words

 Sun came up, crawled into the front seat
 Memories leaving me, was it all a dream I had?

 Time for us to wake up
 I'll save my words to make the most of it
 I never meant to be gone so long
 Do you still remember my touch at all?
 I never meant to be gone so long

 Street lights passing everyone
 Gets me a heartbeat closer
 To where it started beating
 Keep me feeling safe and sound
 When everything that's right is upside down
 Was it all a dream I had?
 Time for us to wake up
 I'll save my words to make the most of it
 I never meant to be gone so long

(So long) as I have you I'll be home
 I never meant to be gone so long
 I'm sorry I made you wait
 I wish that I could stay
 I live for this, but I'd die for you
 The world still moves on.

Do you still remember my touch at all?
 I never meant to be gone so long
Do you still remember my touch at all?
 I never meant to be gone so long

 As I have you walk me home
 I never meant to be gone so long
Do you still remember my touch at all?
 I never meant to be gone so long
