

My Desire (Radio Edit)

P.C.T

(INTRO)

... er, Danger Money's in the building...

It's P.C.T...

With another straight banger...

Nah, this ain't M.C. Hammer...

But I'm looking to go global,

I'm a Schwarzenegger... Recall, Total...

Yeah I'm walking on Mars...

Look at my DNA and you might see the bars.(VERSE 1)

Take a lucky guess who's back from the dead again/

Drunk off of power and properly off his head again/

Analyse the f out of what I just said again/

As for the rumours, I'm putting them all to bed again/

The grim reaper's rearing her pretty head again,

The shepherdess, I mean the devil rocking a dress again/

Shepherdess, I bet the sheep'll be mislead again...

It'll be a massacre if ever you see, red again...

If we're a match made in heaven, then I'm a newlywed...

Up in your bed, without an A-to-Z again/

As for what I said again, lay me to rest in the...

Valley of The Kings, not Death Valley the valley...

Of the dead again, get it? The word 'death' is a myth...

If you ever left your body all you left is a glyph...

And you're a phoenix, a bird with wings of fire...

The wind beneath my wings, if you lift me higher (/ than I have ever been)...(CHORUS)

... I'm a...

Reach my desire [I'm a]...

Reach my desire [I'm a]...

Reach, my desire [yeah]/

... Can you...

See my desire? [Can you...]

See my desire? [Can you...]

See my desire? [Yeah/]

... Can you...

Feel my desire? [Can you...]

Feel my desire? [Can you...]

Feel my desire? [Yeah/]

... Your...

Body is on fire, your...

Body is on fire, your...
Body is my desire yeah!(VERSE 2)
Last night was lust at first sight ...
We were one at first sight, you're only half-right...
If you reckon it was love at first sight,
It was love at first light, the mother of birthrights...
And it belongs to each and every one of us...
An eternity together we've got in front of us...
If you and I are one within the matrix...
You are my trinity, look into my eyes, I'm the one...
And I've only just begun...
Come along for the ride, I promise it'll be fun,
If you're the Moon, I'm the Sun,
It's a total eclipse of the heart of each other as we come...
To a place that we're gonna be...
As I look at your face, I see a beautiful place that I wanna be,
And it's any place with your body on top of me,
You're making a mockery of my defences, my body is your property!(CHORUS)(VERSE 3)
I spy, with my little eye, a spot...
On the horizon of a Hannibal rising...
Aah, if you're rising in love your body...
Is a thermometer, Mercury's rising...
And it's hardly surprising,
The powers in power are hardly dividing...
The wealth of the planet...
Between the wealth of the people on the planet...
In a fair manner, abominable habits are their manner,
As a matter of fact, a methodical madness in their manner...
Has got the world under the g, under the thumb...
And living off of the crumbs, I'm hitting it with their hammer...
If you're a bull then you're a cheese, Leerdammer...
Yellower than a wolf in Mississippi, Alabama...
If I'm a Mustang, you're a raggedy old banger,
Better yet a coward who ought to have his neck b with a coat hanger.(CHORUS)
