Tears, Hope and Hate

Krabathor

Your leave your hands along your body
You wanna take your pain out of your hands
To arrange everything by only motion
.. nothing is so fast.
Chorus:
You want what you don't have
You scream without response
You cry without tears
You fear without fear
Tears, hope and hate
To take a breath again
To give a change to nothing and nobody
You must hurt? Do you want it?
I think it's a law of life
Repeat Chorus
What I'll do will be right
I'll believe the voices of my heart
No other way ... don't be scared
All will end for your pleasure.
Time is too fast
It makes corpese of us by growing old
You have to do something in time
No! I must wait - I'm even scared!
Repeat Chorus
.. And Pleasure!!!
Looking at their bodies
You're diverting your eyes
You loathe their touch
Expressions in the faces
Talk about inner pain
Can their hearts scream for help?
Disgusting human boxes
Someone's hand given them to retirement
It's easy to get rid of something
That you don't want
But they await your help
Disgusting human boxes
Someone's hand given them to retirement
Gods and the games of nature didn't stop

Horrors of life will continue still repeatin
You'll never forget what you have seen
Still you'll hear the crying of those
Who suffer!
Chorus:
Pain that doesn't hurt
Bleeding hearts
Pain that doesn't hurt
Veins filled with tears
Repeat
Disgusting human ...
