Bambu or Ez Wider

Brian Goss

Bambu or EZ Wider
I'm strutting stores like CC Rider again, again
John Brown and Joey's psycho
He popping wheelies on their motorcycles again, againSeventeen with a burning dream
I fell in love with a Sheriffs daughter
Summertime we were drinking wine
And swimming in the waterHats off to Crispen Glover
And all the other psychedelic lovers, oh yeahTwenty nine I was doing fine
Opportunities round the corner
Summertime no more drinking wine
Now it's Whiskey and some waterRunning WildBambu or EZ Wider
I'm strutting stores like CC Rider again
These days it all feels so right
Me and Mike flying kites in the moonlight again, againThirty five I was still alive
But a change was coming round the corner
Left my woman and I left my home
Know she'll have to deal with her karmaRunning Wild
