

You Don't Miss Your Water

Otis Redding

In the beginning
You really loved me, oh
I was too blind
I could not see then But now that you left me
Oh, how I cried, I keep crying
You don't miss your water
'Til your well run dry I kept you crying
Sad and blue, oh my, oh
I was a playboy
I just wouldn't be true But now that you left me
Good Lord, how I cried, I keep crying, I keep crying
Ooh, I didn't miss my water, no I never miss my water
'Til my well run dry I sit here and wonder
How in the world this could be, oh my
I never thought, oh, I never thought
You'd ever leave me But now that you left me
Good Lord, good Lord, how I cried
You don't miss your water, you don't miss your water
'Til your well run dry Ooh, you don't miss your water, you don't miss your water
'Til your well run dry I miss my water, I keep missing my water
I keep missing my water, and I want my water
I need my water, I love my water, and I want my water
And I am a little thirsty now, and I am a little thirsty now I want my water, I keep wanting my water
I never missed my water, I never, never missed my water
'Til my well, 'til my well kept running dry
And I love, I love my water, and I want my water
I need my water, got to have my water, got to have my water
Good Lord, good Lord
