Blu

b-boa

I felt a hand pull me deeper under
And it always makes me wonder was it you?
I met somebody else, the impression I fell under
It felt an awful lot like it was you
Was it you who caught my attention?
Was it you who showed your face anywhere but here?
I'd like to see you go
I see BLUE
I'm underwater next to you
The Seven seas don't have a clue of where to hide someone like you
I see BLUE underwater next to you
Every wave brings me bad news, oooh oh
I love the deep end, it holds me so much closer
I'm drowning in the flood I know as you
Was it you who caught my attention?

Was it you who showed your face anywhere but here?
I'd like to see you go
I see BLUE
I'm underwater next to you
The Seven seas don't have a clue of where to hide someone like you
I see BLUE underwater next to you
Every wave brings me bad news, news
I'm scaling half the ocean, burying your name,
But I found the seas all frozen after coming all this way
I See BLU
I'm underwater next to you
The Seven seas don't have a clue of where to hide someone like you
I See BLU underwater next to you
The Seven seas don't have a clue of where to hide someone like you
I See BLU underwater next to you
Every wave brings me bad news, news
