Sunny Day

Jason Rubero

Sunny day
It's enough to lift you up
It's enough to knock you out
With love

Sunny day
It's enough to pull you through
Quite enough to pull you out
Of your wonderous shell

Sunny day
It can lift you up though you aren't strong
Can harmonize and help you sing your song
Your song of songs

My head is so light
I don't think I can keep it down
(I could canter but this breeze keeps me blowing around)

I could slide
Beneath the diamonds of water and drown
(But if I die I just might miss the luscious bubbling sound)
Of a sunny day
Of a sunny day
Of a...

Sunny day
It could helium my blues
Lift me high above these sullen shoes
If I could be with anyone it's you I'd choose

Sunny day
Could almost paint your hair autumn red
But then by rights summer might be dead
So I think you should wear a hat instead

Never mind what the buzzing bees all said
