One By One

Yoav

I am not the father of 2.3
And I am still burning to be free
No more time, no long you drag my way
Through the numbered hours at the end of the dayWhat's become of you? What's become of me?
I swore we never belonged to not be in love
What's become of you? What's become of me?
Our faces said, it's so hard, start turning to stoneOne by, one by one
Each like the otherAnd I do not dream of drifting away
In a boat that we made with our heart and mind
And I do not mean, did he show the tie?
To leave me astray in the land where dreams dieWork a day out, work a day in
It's been this way for as long as we can recall
Work a day in, work a day out
Gone are the days when we wonder what we come here forOne by, one by one we come
One by, one by one
We go each like the other oneWe come, each like the other one
We come, each like the other one
Each like the other one
Each like the other oneOne by, one by one we come
One by, one by
We go each like the other oneOne by, one by one we come
One by, one by one
We go each like the other oneOne by, one by one, we have come
One by, one by one
We go each like the other one
