Until I Get You

Hanoi Rocks

For your love, I'd give anything for your time
The stars above and if I ever get you
I'll never let you go oh, noDon't deny, you have seen me before
Realize, look me in the eye, just a while
I've got love, I won't hide it
Now, when I finally found itHey you, hey you, where did you come from?
A supermarket corridor?
Hey you, hey you, what's going on?
When I turned my head away
She had gone the other wayOh where, over there, she walks again
I had to be her boyfriend
Hey you, it's true, baby there I stood
When I looked her in the eye
She gave me a sweet, sweet smileFor your love, I'd give anything for your time
The stars above and if I ever get you
I'll never let you goDon't deny you have seen me before
Realize, look me in the eye, just a while
I've got love, I won't hide it
Now, when I finally found itI've seen you many times before
For each time, you give me more
I'd like to be always yours
So it's up to you, please take me home
With you, oh, woohFor your love, I'd give anything for your time
The stars above and if I ever get you
I'll never let you go, ohWell you, you're the sweetest thing
For you, I'd give anything
If you're a dream, then let me sleep foreverUntil I get you
(Until I get you)
Until I get you
(Until I get you)
Until, I get you
(Until I get you)Until, I get you
(Until I get you)
Until I get you
(Until I get you)Baby, until I get you
(Until I get you)
Until I get you
(Until I get you)I'll be dreaming of you every night
All of my time
