Because You're Sad

The Muffs

Take it all and go away
Do you think the world loves you?
That's everything about youGive it up and go away
And I know you're blaming everyone
Now you're the victim here to seeEvery time you run from your life
Something comes around
Wipe that face
When you find '
Everybody knows because you're sadLet you out and let you down
You're a freaky little adolescent
But you are all left to knowShake it in Shake it out
Maybe we can get some time
Since you're away
I bet you never willEvery time you look into you good eyes
You have your own UniverseWhy the happy face?
When you finally look into your '
Everybody knows because you're sadWe will not let it get away
Don't worry
Everybody because you're sadWhy the happy face?
When you finally look into your '
Everybody knows because you're sadCause you're sad,
Cause you're sad
Cause you're sad
