Drifter

Sylvia

Drifter, since you left me
I've been cryin' every day
You knew that I loved you
But you drifted anywayDrifter, I thought my kiss
Stopped all your restlessness
But you proved again
No one rooks the windDrifter, please remember
No one loves you like I doDrifter, I thought my kiss
Stopped all your restlessness
But you proved again
No one rooks the windDrifter, I'll be waitin'
Should you ever drift back inDrifter, oh drifter
