

What a Perfect Combination

Eddie Cantor

Sheâ€™s got lips that taste like wine
I like herâ€™s, she likes mine
What a perfect combination!
No wonder weâ€™re in love

When she sits upon my knee
I take this, so does she
What a perfect combination
No wonder weâ€™re in love

She taught me one thing
Love is only what you make it
And I know one thing
She can dish it out and I can take it

We both want a family
I want twins and so does she
What a perfect combination
No wonder weâ€™re in love

I just fell hook, line and sinker
Sweetest gal in town
Iâ€™m all bound up with a brand new love affair
I canâ€™t tell which way Iâ€™m going
The world is upside down
I know that Iâ€™m gone the panic is on

I like bread, she likes Yam
I like eggs, she likes ham
What a perfect combination
No wonder weâ€™re in love

Can she cook?
Can she sew?
She can sew and sew and sew
What a perfect combination
No wonder weâ€™re in love

Once she liked crooning
Used to go for Rudy Valle

We started spooning
Now her radio is in the alley

Iâ€™ll never rest until sheâ€™s mine
When sheâ€™s mine Iâ€™ll never rest
What a perfect combination
No wonder weâ€™re in love

She taught me one thing
Love is only what you make it
And I know one thing
She can dish it out and I can take it

We both want a family
I want twins and so does she
