

Tara

Tricia Garcia

I know where to go tomorrow
Where tears will not find me
Now I'll give you this song
And autumn rays come down
Ring out the bells in Tara

My destiny in your handsI'm waiting at the crossroads, waiting for you

With the blossoms around us, promising true

Dreaming on the high wind, dream it for you

And return to our lost ocean blueI want to believe forever

Sleep softly beside me

And I'll give you this heart

When morning dew falls down

Stood by the hill of Tara

Feel the love in the landI'm waiting at the crossroads, waiting for you

With the blossoms around us, promising true

Dreaming on the high wind, dream it for you

And return to our lost ocean blue[Foreign content]I'm waiting at the crossroads, waiting for you

With the blossoms around us, promising true

Dreaming on the high wind, dream it for you

And return to our lost ocean blue
