Never Yours Tracy Chapman
Say I have known some
Less than I should
Say I have known some
Too well for my own good
Say Im a saint of mercy
Say Im a whore
Ive been a lot of things
But never yours I wear my mamas dress
Her finest clothes
Daddy showed me outside
To meet you on the front porch
I laugh at all your jokes
But you look bored
Ive been a lot of things but never yours You never cross my mind
You can be sure
Youll never catch my eye
Waiting for you watching the door
I let you hold me
Dry lip kiss me on the dance hall floor
Ive been a lot of things
But never yours Never yours
Never yours
Never yours
Never yours
Never yours
Never yours
Never yours
Never yours So you say you won
It was a bet
A game of pool or cards
I repay my familys debt
I let you lie beside me

With no remorse
Ive been a lot of things
But never yoursSo you say you won
It was a bet
A game of pool or cards
I repay my familys debt
I let you lie beside me
With no remorse
Ive been a lot of things
But never yoursSay I have known some
Less than i should
Say I have known some
Too well for my own good
Say Im a saint of mercy
Say Im a whore
But never yours
