

Blame It on Me

Last In Line

Everyone wants to play the victim
But I'm still the same.
You know I'll never change
But I remember when
I was the cancer,
I'll be the bastard, the horror,
The shame You throw your hands up in the air
Dragging round that cross
You always seem to bear
With your answers, questions,
Active aggression
Well, I gotta tell ya
That I don't really care
Blame it on me
Blame it on me
When your judgment comes
You'll pass the blame
It's a God damn shame
Blame it on me
And it's a God damn shame
Shame Everyone wants to play the hero
A hydroponic, supersonic,
Over zealous phase
Realize you're not what you clame to be
I'll take the bow
When you're dead or in a cage But the burden of the past
Still holds you back
You'll never be anything
Anything
Blame it on me
Blame it on me
When your judgment comes
You'll pass the blame
It's a God damn shame
Blame it on me
Blame it on me Where to begin
When your fear lies awake
A cold broken sin
Hard to undo what you made

And where does it end
When you fell it's already too late(It's already too late
Is there something else
That you need)Everyone wants to play the victim
But I'm still the same.
You know I'll never change
But I remember when
I was the cancer,
I'll be the bastard, the horror,
The shameBlame it on me
Blame it on me
Blame it on me
Blame it on me
I know you're gonna blame it on me
Blame it on me
Blame it on me
Blame it on me
Blame it on meWhen your judgment comes
You'll pass the blame
It's a God damn shame
Blame it on me
And it's a God damn shame
Shame
Shame
Shame
When your judgment comes
You'll pass the blame
It's a God damn shame
Blame it on me
Shame
Shame
Damn shame
It's a God damn shame

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>