Falling Stars

Latch Key Kid

Star light gonna burn out tonight
And drink till I forget
Somebody turned out the lights
Now I donâ€™t know where Iâ€™ve been

Fell down and Iâ€™m on the ground
Now Iâ€™m looking up again
To the sky where I used to shine
And thatâ€™s where it all began
Thatâ€™s where it all begins
Nobody always wins
And thatâ€™s where weâ€™ll all land
Until we try again, again and again

Falling stars landing on the boulevard
Thatâ€™s all behind the scenes
Shouldâ€™ve known we wouldnâ€™t get very far
In this town of broken dreams
Someone should have told you, itâ€™s not as easy as it seems
Someone could have shown you, itâ€™s all behind the scenes
Itâ€™s all just make believe

Another round for the circus clown
Heâ€™s finally made it big
Center ring now heâ€™s going to sing
The national anthem
He wrote the song, itâ€™s a sing-a-long
Now heâ€™s forgetting all the words
And now he cries just like Jekyll and Hyde
And the carousel it turns
And thatâ€™s where we all return
When will we ever learn
To laugh and play along
The show it must go on and on and on

Falling stars landing on the boulevard
Itâ€™s all behind the trends
Should have known weâ€™d never get very far
In the city of dead ends
Someone should have told you, thatâ€™s just the way it goes

Someone could have shown you, itâ€™s all in who you know
It only goes to show
