Barefoot in Baltimore

Strawberry Alarm Clock

Barefoot in Baltimore
Heel and toe with youSummer turns the stove on
And fun begins to cook
Barefoot walks in Baltimore
With empty pocketbookLaugh at sizzling sidewalks
Don't step on the cracks
Old folks try to catch their breath
As children catch their jacksBarefoot in Baltimore
Heel and toe with youBaltimore is music
Dancing in the street
Half chewed dubble bubble
Tugging at our feetMelted tar in crosswalks
Crab shells in the park
Pavement frying our poor toes
Until long after darkBarefoot in Baltimore
Heel and toe with youWhen night comes we can go walking
On the shores of Chesapeake Bay
A silence tailored for talking
And a love with so much to sayBarefoot in Baltimore
Heel and toe with you

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/