Love Love Love

Unwritten Law

I feel it comin' on again

I feel the sudden rush

When you touch, kickin' in, oh, oh

I know you heard it all before

But when you leave, I just want more

You're the only thing I'm waitin' for'Cause in the evening, there'll be

Love, love, love

And in the morning, there'll be

Love, love, loveIn the beginning, there was

Love, love, love, yeah

Until the last breath we take, there'll be

Love, love, love, loveI wanna lay and watch you sleep

I wanna play your favorite songs

'Til dawn and we won't stop to repeat

I know I said it once before

When you leave, I just want more

So won't you be my, 'Only Yours'?'Cause in the evening, there'll be

Love, love, love

And in the morning, there'll be

Love, love, loveIn the beginning, there was

Love, love, love, yeah

Until the last breath we take, there'll be

Love, love, love, loveOh yeah

La te da, la te da

La te da, la te da da

La te da, la te da

Da da da da da da da da da And in the evening, there'll be

Love, love, love

(Will there be love?)

And in the morning, there'll be

Love, love, love

(Yeah, there'll be love)In the beginning, there was

Love, love, love, yeah

Until the last breath we take, there'll be

Love, love, love, love, love, love, love)

And in the evening, there'll be

(Love, love, love)

And in the evening, there'll be(Love, love, love)

And in the morning, there'll be

(Love, love, love)
And in the morning, there'll be(Love, love, love)
In the beginning, there was
(Love, love, love)
In the beginning, there was
(Love, love, love
