WHALE

Yellow Ostrich

Whale, swim with me whale
We will go far into the sea
You will take me onto your back
Never look back, never look backWhale, sing to me whale, sing me a song
Tell me that things will never go wrong
Hide me away, don't let them stay
Don't let them stay!Whale, come with me whale
We will go far into the blue
I will take you
Listen to me, then you will see
Then you will seeWhale, don't worry whale
Just do as you please
I will accept if you'd rather leave
I'll open my heart if you open your heart
Open your heartI've been swimming for a thousand years and I've Seen more than you can realize
But I accept that you will never understand
So I will gladly take your handWhale, come with me whale!
We will go far into the blue
You will take me
Onto your back
Never look backNever look back
Never look back
Never lookWHALE! come with me whale
We will go far into the blue
I will take you
Listen to me, then you will see
Then you will seeWhale, don't worry whale,
Just do as you please
I will accept if you'd rather leave
I'll open my heart if you open your heart
Open your heart
