

I Was Thinking...

Gauntlet Hair

Feel free to correct anything. This is what I got from this song. I was thinking, yeah I was thinking that this is more than ever

I was told, yeah I was told that this is about together
I was thinking, yeah I was thinking that we were born to shout
I was told, yeah I was told that it'd get that much better
Never say love, you don't talk with feelings, we cry
Now, what is to feel like Trying to listen, she not being abused I give you work to ever
I believe, yeah I was seen, nothing sharp and clever
We all love her
I expect yeah I expect, how it's supposed to sound
I'm impressed, yeah I'm impressed with now it's far from over
Never say love, you don't talk with feelings, we cry Now, what is to feel like
Not so bad, inside
Not so bad, inside
We love her
Trying to go
Trying to go, let me know, resolution
Trying to flow
Trying to flow, we don't know, resolution
I suppose, I suppose being the jerks who never, never
I suppose, I suppose that this time we all slept outside You don't know me
Oh no shame
And you know where I'm going
Of my best friend
Say, how, is now over
Say, how, is now over
(Can't figure out the ending which I think is the best part)
