

My Mind Is Dangerous

Life of Agony

And I look in the mirror and guess what I see
A baby blue eyed spirit who seeks your everything
And my mind is chaotic, unless I choose to be free
Sometimes I just can't help myself, sometimes I just can't help myself And my mind is dangerous
And that's who I'll always be
And my mind is dangerous
And that's who I'll always be Hideous devastations, lifeless serenity
And my abstract emotions, somehow, get the best of me
Lord, take away my sorrow, Lord, take away my pain
Erasing life tomorrow, ain't the motive to the game And my mind is dangerous
And that's who I'll always be
And my mind is dangerous
That's who I'll always be Erasing life tomorrow, ain't the motive to the game
Erasing life tomorrow, ain't the motive to the game
Take away my sorrow, Lord, take away my pain
Lord, take away my sorrow, Lord, take away my pain
