

She's Not You

Chris Isaak

Her hair is gold and her eyes are oh so blue
She's all the things a girl should be, but she's not you
She knows just how to make me laugh when I feel blue
Everything a man could want, but she's not you
And when we're dancing, sometimes it feels the same
I've got to stop myself from whispering your name
She even kisses me like you used to do
And it's just breaking my heart, 'cause she's not you
Yeah it's just breaking my heart, 'cause she's not you
And when we're dancing, it almost feels the same
I've got to stop myself from whispering your name
She even kisses me like you used to do
And it's just breaking my heart, 'cause she's not you
Yeah it's just breaking my heart, 'cause she's not you
