I'll Come Running

Connie Smith

If you ever want somebody to love
If you ever get to feeling blue
If you ever want a little company
Then I'll come running to youIt's been so long since I held you tight
But I still dream about you, darling, every night
I don't care who was wrong or who was right
I'll come running to youNow all my love belongs to you
That's just the way that I feel
And if you'd give me the least little chance
I'd show you my love is realWell I'm not a bit ashamed to sit here and wait
If that's all what I've got to do
I'll be around if your new love turns you down
And I'll come running to youNow all my love belongs to you
That's just the way that I feel
And if you'd give me the least little chance
I'd show you my love is realWell I'm not a bit ashamed to sit here and wait
If that's all what I've got to do
I'll be around if your new love turns you down
And I'll come running to you
