Someone Else Before

Hawk Nelson

The phone starts ringing again I think it's my girlfriend
This time I know this it's finally over
She keeps bringing me down, will this all turn around
Right now I feel like I'm slowly dyingYou know I've heard it all before
And now my eyes they run like faucets
Until my tears are dryShe said we were in love, I take a sip of my water
I guess we'll carry on at last
She still thinks it's my fault and I'm nobody at all
She must have thought I was someone else before
Oh oh oh ohI'm not so special now, I always knew it somehow
I guess she never had guts to tell me
Is it my spiked blond hair, that fact my chest is bare
Or that my wardrobe is all in black, it's all in black
It's all in black, you want me back well I won't be backBecause you're always keeping score
But now the scorecard's in my pocket
And now the match is wonShe said we were in love, I take a sip of my water
I guess we'll carry on at last
She still thinks it's my fault and I'm nobody at all
She must have thought I was someone else beforeBefore
She said we were in love, I take a sip of my water
I guess we'll carry on at last
She still thinks it's my fault and I'm nobody at all
She must have thought I was someone else beforeShe said we were in love
She said we were in love
