

How You Went So Far

Frank Black & The Catholics

Someday, I know that you'll be coming back here
Will you someday?
I wait to hear you turn that knob on that door
I can't take it no more Boston to Phoenix
I went in my car
But I don't know how you went so far I've been to Cairo
I've seen the bazaar
But I don't know how you went so far One day, I know that you will come to your senses
Will you one day?
Its too late for me to leave and be with you there
I would be scared
